ALL SCRIPTURES ARE QUOTED FROM THE KING JAMES VERSION OF THE BIBLE.

MODERN VERSIONS VERSUS KING JAMES VERSION

The following are two quotes from Volume B2 of "The World Book Encyclopedia" 1968 Edition. The first quote is from page 220 and the second from 222a about the King James Version of the Bible.

"It is much better in language and arrangement than any Protestant version produced before. Its statements of fact were more clearly correct. It soon took the place of all other versions. English speaking Protestant Churches adopted it."

"Tyndale's translation of the Bible helped to make English a literary language. It fixed the phrases of the Bible in most of the other translations. The New Testament is still about 92 percent the way Tyndale first wrote it in 1525."

The following paragraph is taken from The New Analytical Bible – Authorized King James Bible published by John A. Dickson Publishing Co. copyright 1973 Contents- The Bible IV History of the English Bible section 12. American Standard Version (1901) first paragraph:

“The American Standard Revision Committee- consisting of such scholars as Dr. J. H. Thayer, Dr.

Philip Schaff, Dr. Charles Hodge, Dr. C. M. Mead, and other notables – maintained its organization during these 14 years and published the American Standard edition of the Revised Version (usually called American Standard Version) in 1901, with exclusive copyright for 28 years by Thomas Nelson and Sons, who paid expenses of the American Committee from 1896 to 1901. MOST MODERN VERSIONS OF THE BIBLE

It does not appear to me that the changes in the modern versions of the bible come from the Textus Receptus, (the many original Greek Manuscripts) or the 1611 Authorized King James Version for the Greek portion of the bible (the New Testament) but rather principally used Westcott/Hort Revised Greek New Testament to revise the King James Version instead. Since Westcott/Hort held the SINAITIUS – VATICANICUS - ALEXANDRINUS Text to be superior to the many existing Greek manuscripts of the King James Version the revisions were in effect revised principally by two men's confidence in basically two or three manuscripts which are considered by most to be full of errors and corrupted. Remember the golden calf at Mt. Sinai was remembered by the Israelites after coming out of Egypt just like the Alexandrian Text or the Minority Text came out of Egypt.

Is it possible that our educated, intellectual, reasoning, questioning, criticizing, learned leaders of our diluted religious society have fallen for such trickery again? In other words if all of our leaders go back to the Greek, then change or revise the Greek to read like they want it to read and give it to them and say here is the Greek. It seems to me that this is exactly what Westcott/Hort did. The sad part about it is we have accepted it without question hook line and sinker and few there be that have the faith to stand up against it. Some are even looked at as “GREAT MEN OF GOD” and court such trickery.

We are standing at the doors of the coming of the Lord and many are like bees busy changing GOD'S WORD before His Son gets here. I can easily see how there will be many weak knees and possibly depart from me at that time (do not be one of them).
