2 John 1:6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

"LOOK FOR HIS COMING"

All scriptures are quoted from the King James Version of the Bible.

Have you come one on one with the Lord?

Love

Part 2

Mat 22:36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Why do we not believe we should love God with all our heart, soul and mind?
If we believe it we should try to do it.

Why do we not believe we should love our neighbor as ourself?
If we really believe it we should try to do it.

In our modernistic humanistic society where we have been taught to be self centered as if we are the center of the universe how can we even know what true spiritual love is?

Most marriages end in divorce. Many do not even bother to get married. Many that do get married feel that they will try it for a little while to see how it works. What happened to death do you part? What has loving our spouse got to do with loving God? If we cannot love our spouse, how can we love our neighbor and if we cannot love our neighbor who we have seen how can we love God who we have not seen?

It seems to be clear that many do not even know what love really is especially love from the heart.

Many, especially young people, when it comes to love with a partner they think it is sex.

How can we love God with all our heart, mind and soul if we do not even know what true heart felt spiritual love from our soul really is? How can we be His if we do not love Him?

God Is Love

1 John 4:8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

1 John 4:16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

Father Gave His Son

John 10:17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again

John 15:13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

1 John 2:3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

John 10:17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

John 14:15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

John 14:21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

John 14:23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

John 14:31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

John 15:12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

John 15:17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

John 15:19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

John 21:15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

Peter had cut off the ear of the servant of the high priest, later denying he was even there, and then denied Christ three time. After the crucifixion Peter had gone back to fishing. Peter had traveled some distance from Jerusalem to the Sea of Galilee to take up his old profession. Was it the fish or the fisherman Christ was asking did he love more? Regardless, Christ had gone to him and confronted him questioning his love towards him. After the Lord had sifted Peter and set him on the right road Peter followed the Master until his death. He was a faithful and loyal servant from henceforth. Perhaps our love needs to be tested, we need to be sifted and our feet put on the right road. How many times have we denied the master with our actions and deeds? How many times have we turned back to the old life rather than staying with the new life of the new birth in Christ Jesus? How many times would the Lord have to ask us “lovest thou me more than these” (John 21:15)?

Mat 5:48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

Mat 6:14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Mat 6:24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Mat 7:12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.
