Mt 7:14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

"LOOK FOR HIS COMING"

All Scriptures Are Quoted from the King James Version of the Bible.

Have You Come One on One with the Lord?

Meek - Meekness

Part I

Little Child

Mt. 18:3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Converted - turn, revolution, turning, twist, turn quite around or reverse, convert,

I have always thought Mt. 18:3 said you have to come as a little child to enter the kingdom of heaven, but look closely and it says you have to be converted and become as little children. To me there is a big, big difference, one way (like I thought it was) you have to come as a little child to enter, the other (the way it reads) you are converted and become as little children. Does it not mean after conversion we come as a little child, then he can lead us, teach us and we will follow Him? Everything fits, follow Him, abide in Him, keep His commandments, a good heart, seek Him, pick up your cross and follow Him, a contrite spirit, all of these and more describe a born again child of God.

Does the above verse not say "...converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven."?

Does this not mean that all born again Christians must become as little children when we are converted to enter the kingdom of heaven? Could being taught pragmatism in our schools (everything must be preeminently tested or questioned to be true) shut the kingdom of heaven by destroying faith. How can we become as little children being a critic and believing that every word of God can be questioned?

Mark 10:14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them,

Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.
